Annual General Meeting <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1.1 The Chairman of the Committee shall attend the Annual General Meeting to answer any members' questions on the Committee's activities. 2. Duties. The Committee shall: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 2.1 Regularly review the structure, size and composition (including the skills, knowledge, experience and diversity) required of the Board and make recommendations to the Board with regard to any changes, taking into account any agreed succession plans. 2.2 Give full consideration to succession planning for directors and other senior executives in the course of its work (unless this has already been considered by all of the Non-executive Directors in relation to succession planning for executive directors and other senior executives), taking into account the challenges and opportunities facing the Society, and the skills and expertise needed on the Board in the future. 2.3 Keep under review the leadership needs of the organisation, both executive and non-executive, with a view to ensuring the continued ability of the organisation to compete effectively in the market place. 2.4 Be responsible for identifying and nominating for the approval of the Board, candidates to fill Board vacancies as and when they arise including conducting initial meeting(s) with a candidate with follow-up meetings by other directors as recommended.

- 2.5 Before any new appointment is made to the Board, evaluate the balance of skills, knowledge, experience and diversity on the Board and, in the light of this evaluation, prepare a description of the role and capabilities required for a particular appointment.
- 2.6 In identifying suitable candidates the Committee shall:
- (a) use open advertising or the services of external advisers to facilitate the search;
 - (b) consider candidates from a wide range of backgrounds;
 - (c) consider candidates on merit and against objective criteria and with due regard for the benefits of diversity on the Board, including gender, taking care that appointees have enough time available to devote to the position.
- 2.7 Consider candidates by reference to any 'fit and proper' test and competency and capability criteria as published for time to time by the Society's Regulator(s).
- 2.8 For the appointment of Chairman, the Committee should prepare a job specification, including the time commitment expected. A proposed Chairman's other significant commitments should be disclosed to the Board before appointment and any changes to the Chairman's commitments should be reported to the Board as they arise. This includes any affiliations where the Director is representing the Society at on any other organisation and continues after appointment as they arise.
- 2.9 Ensure that prior to the appointment of a director, the proposed appointee should be required to disclose any other business interests that may result in a conflict of interest and be required to report any future business interests that could result in a conflict of interest.
- 2.10 Ensure that on appointment to the Board, non-executive directors receive:
- (a) a formal letter of appointment setting out clearly what is expected of them in terms of time commitment, committee service and involvement outside Board meetings; and
 - (b) a tailored induction plan the completion of which shall be monitored by the Committee.
- 2.11 If a Board vacancy has been identified by the Committee and approved by the Board, the Committee may at its discretion and where it considers it appropriate (taking into account the expertise required of those conducting the initial meetings with candidates) appoint a Selection Panel in respect of that vacancy to be made up of at least three non-executive directors (at least one of whom must be a member of the Committee). The Committee may delegate to the Selection Panel any of the duties of the Committee set out in 2.1 to 2.6 above in respect of that vacancy and on such terms as to its operation, including the reporting requirements, as determined by the Committee.
- 2.12 In considering diversity on the Board as referred to in 2.1, the Committee shall :
- (a) be responsible for putting in place a policy promoting diversity on the Board; and
 - (b) If considered appropriate, decide on a target for the representation of the underrepresented gender on the Board and prepare a policy on how to increase the number of the underrepresented gender in order to reach that target.
- 2.13 Review the results of the Board performance evaluation process that relate to the composition of the Board.
- 2.14 Review the programme of training for the Board on at least an annual basis.
- 2.15 Approve the Conflicts of Interest Policy in respect of Directors and be responsible for the monitoring of any such conflicts. The Committee will keep under review the Register of Interests, including external directorships and, if appropriate will recommend to the Board the authorisation of interests shown in the Register.
- 2.16 To consider and (if considered appropriate) approve recommendations made by the Society's 'Our Trust Code' panel pursuant to the 'Our Trust Code' investigation panel process in respect of:
- (a) a potential failure of the fitness and propriety review by a Senior Manager or Notified NED; and/or
 - (b) an alleged breach of a Conduct Rule by a Senior Manager or Notified NED.
- To then determine (or make appropriate recommendations to the Board in respect of any matter falling within 3.3 below) appropriate next steps including consideration of the outcome for the individual in question (which may include but would not be limited to performance management, disciplinary action, dismissal, summary dismissal or termination of appointment), reporting to the regulators and any wider communication, and identification of those individuals tasked to undertake any actions considered to be necessary or desirable.
- 2.17 Approve a nominated delegate for any Non-executive Director who is the holder of a Senior Management Function (SMF) in accordance with the Senior Managers Regime (SMR).
- 2.18 Monitor developments in relation to corporate governance issues and, where appropriate, review the potential impact on the company and make recommendations to the Board on any changes to be implemented.

	3. Recommendations to the Board The Committee shall consider and make recommendations to the Board for approval in relation to the following matters:
