Terms & Conditions

1. You can apply for your refund as soon as you have bought a You Choose policy but the refund will not be issued to you by RSA until after the 14 day cooling off period of the You Choose policy and your first payment has been received by direct debit or when the full annual premium has been made.
2. To qualify you will need to provide proof in writing of the cancellation charges, this can be in the form of your current policy schedule or a letter from your current provider detailing the charges (copy is sufficient). We must receive this before any refund is made.
3. The refund applies to cancellation charges only and does not cover any payment arrears or outstanding premiums.
4. The offer covers up to £50 of cancellation charges when switching from another insurer and taking out a new You Choose Home Insurance policy.
5. You can apply for the refund up to 90 days from the date your new You Choose policy has started with us.
6. This offer can be withdrawn at any time.

You should not cancel your existing cover until your You Choose policy is in place.
