A WELCOME FROM YOUR CHAIRMAN

You're a member - not just a customer

Whether you're a saver or a borrower, you're a member of Yorkshire Building Society. We're owned by you, which means we act in your interests. We'll continue to help you through challenging and uncertain environments and support you to achieve your life goals.

The world is changing but our purpose is the same

For the past 155 years our purpose has been to make a real difference to people's lives, by helping them with the financial tools they need to secure a home, supporting their financial resilience through savings and creating value for our members. This is our purpose at Yorkshire Building Society and we call it Real Help with Real Life. You can see how we're doing so far on the following pages.

As a building society we put our members at the centre of what we do. It's important that our objectives serve your interests. Which is why we focus on offering consistently competitive mortgage and savings rates, products that meet your needs and maintaining a high level of service.

I'm pleased to let you know 2019 was a good year for your Society

In a competitive market place we're in a strong financial position despite the uncertainty in the wider economy, and made excellent progress against our plan. This puts us in a good position going forwards. On pages 6 to 11, your Chief Executive, Mike Regnier, reviews how your Society has done in 2019.

Looking to the future

The UK's exit from the European Union has created political and economic uncertainty since the 2016 vote to leave. As we operate almost entirely in the UK we expect the direct impact on the Society is likely to be low. Your Society is in good shape, we've got capital behind us and we're always ready to protect ourselves from any unexpected changes.

I make sure we're a well run organisation which acts in your best interests.

Your Board represents you

One of my responsibilities is ensuring your Society's safety and soundness. I make sure we're a well-run organisation, which acts in your interests. Your Board combines a mixture of skills and experience needed to successfully run a major financial organisation. You can find out about who your Board members are on pages 20-24.

We work to the highest standards of corporate governance and will continue to do so. This supports the long-term success of the Society and ensures we're always doing the best for you – our members.

MIKE REGNIER — YOUR CHIEF EXECUTIVE, REVIEWS 2019

Victoria Quarter, Leeds

“I’m happy to report that we’ve had a good year, making excellent progress on delivering on our purpose of providing Real Help with Real Life for our members.”

In 2019 we generated £185m in core profit, similar to 2018, and £167m in profit before tax, £193m in 2018. This helps to support your Society’s long-term financial sustainability. Alongside this we’ve continued to create value for members, giving £95m back to members through the difference in our savings rates, compared to the lower market average.

In 2019 we also donated £1m to local communities through charitable giving and colleague volunteering, and worked hard to reduce our environmental impact.

I’m particularly pleased this is all against a backdrop of positive external feedback. Our Net Promoter Score™ which measures how satisfied our customers are with the services we provide and how likely they’d be to recommend us, has risen 10 points to +51². I’m proud of this as it shows that members really value the service our colleagues provide.

We’re delighted that our members and industry professionals continue to recognise our hard work, as shown by the number and calibre of awards we won in 2019, including Best Overall Mortgage Provider and Best Building Society Savings Provider in the MoneyNet Personal Finance Awards.

We were set up to help members achieve the things they want in life

We continue to do this today to help our members with the challenges they face. With the Bank Rate set by the Bank of England at a near record low this has meant low rates for savers, which has been the case for several years. Average house prices in England and Wales climbed from three and a half times the average full time workers salary in 1997, to over seven times the average earnings in 2018³, which means buying a first home, or a larger home for a growing family, has become increasingly difficult.

The way people live and work is changing

Busy lives and advances in technology mean greater demand and opportunity to transact in a more accessible way, but we also know that many of our members still value face-to-face services.

We want to help you with these very real difficulties and to achieve your financial goals. This is why our purpose is to provide Real Help with Real Life, by delivering three strategic ambitions – helping people to have a place to call home, helping them towards greater financial wellbeing and delivering value to our members.

WE KEPT OUR FOCUS on our five strategic priorities, which enable us to deliver our purpose

HELP

Help ensures we focus on providing targeted help for more members with the real financial challenges they face.

DIGITALISE

We're also ensuring we Digitalise our business to become more agile, efficient and effective.

UNLEASH

Through our Unleash priority, we're working to support every one of our colleagues to maximise their full potential.

EXPAND

Expand our reach, physically and digitally, so we can help more people.

PROTECT

To make sure we're able to serve existing and future members for years to come, we Protect your Society and our stakeholders by making sure the organisation is financially and environmentally sustainable, with robust controls to minimise and mitigate against risk.

We've been helping more people have a place to call home

We introduced a number of changes to help first time buyers, including extending our maximum mortgage term to 40 years. We also supported older borrowers who may be looking to downsize or remortgage to help younger generations, by raising our maximum lending age to 80.

In 2019 we launched an overpayments calculator to support those wanting to pay off their mortgage quicker, changed our mortgage switching policy to make it faster and easier and introduced a 15 year fixed-rate mortgage to give greater future certainty for borrowers. We also raised £244,000 for End Youth Homelessness, enabling 206 vulnerable young homeless people to have a safe place to call home.

“Best First Time Buyer Mortgage Provider at the Moneynet Awards”

And helping towards greater financial wellbeing

To help our savers, we paid rates on average 0.34%⁴ higher than the market average. We launched a competitive child's regular saver account and a tiered easy access account to help savers withdraw their money in an emergency, whilst rewarding them for saving with us. We helped 135,000 employees in over 100 organisations to save direct from their salary.

In the community, our colleagues volunteered to deliver financial education to 7,000 young people around the UK through our Money Minds programme. I was proud to work with colleagues at our Strand branch in London to give a session to pupils at Grafton Primary School in Islington, where I saw first hand the difference an introduction to financial literacy makes to young people.

Investing in our digital capabilities is an essential part of our future

As well as supporting members who want to use our online services, it will make our business more effective and speed up our processes. This will give our colleagues more time to help you, whether you choose to interact with us online, in our contact centre or face-to-face in our branches or agencies.

We've made some solid progress on this priority in 2019, including investing in robotics and automation to increase the efficiency of some of our processes. We also introduced a new online platform for brokers through our intermediary lender, Accord Mortgages Ltd. This has reduced mortgage application to offer times to as little as 24 hours and vastly reduced the amount of paper we use.

We're focusing on our digital agenda in 2020 and acknowledge we still have a lot more to do, especially given the speed of change in the wider market.

We're expanding to make the most of new opportunities and potential partnerships

We want to reach more people and make sure we're supporting both new and existing members and customers.

“We're committed to continuing to offer a national network of face-to-face service in a cost-effective way.”

We've been expanding our network where we believe a new agency could provide good opportunities and we've turned eight of our existing branches into agencies in 2019. This has enabled us to continue to provide face-to-face service in a more cost-effective way.

For the last 60 years, we've been doing this by partnering with agency proprietors – trusted local business owners who work with us to provide our services from their business premises.

Our people are our greatest asset, they play a vital role in everything we do

In return, we make sure that they feel respected, valued and proud to work for Yorkshire Building Society. Our ambition is to be a leading employer and unleash the potential of every colleague. That's why we're developing a culture of supporting and engaging all colleagues as well as prioritising their wellbeing and promoting diversity and inclusion.

We've continued to develop programmes to support our colleagues' physical, mental and financial wellbeing. We also launched an online portal for colleagues to choose flexible benefits that support their personal needs.

Included in the 2019 Working Families Top 30 UK employers for the third year running

Playing our part in local communities

A key part of our role in society is to provide careers and development for our colleagues and financial services to our members, but we believe we can achieve much more by also being active in our local communities.

Our branch and agency network in 243 cities, towns and villages, alongside our office sites in Bradford, Leeds and Peterborough give us the opportunity and scale to make a significant impact.

“We're really proud of the positive impact we're making thanks to our members and colleagues who are passionate about helping their communities to thrive.”

In 2019, 51% of colleagues took part in volunteering opportunities, donating over 14,500 hours.

Three million customers trust us to finance their homes and look after their savings

We want to help as many people as we can for years to come, and to do this, we must be financially sustainable. In 2020, we'll be continuing to keep costs down and maintain our financial strength. This will enable us to carry on delivering value for money for our members, whilst investing in better products and services.

Like all organisations, we have a duty to make sure we are minimising our impact on the planet. We've worked hard to reduce our carbon emissions, the waste produced by our office sites and face-to-face network and the amount of paper we use. We'll continue with these initiatives in the coming year to make sure we remain sustainable and responsible. You can find out more about how you can help the environment and save money on pages 16-17.

We remain financially strong

Our financial performance is closely monitored by your Board.

Our Common Equity Tier 1 ratio of 16.6% is well above the minimum requirement and ensures we're protected from losses. Our liquidity ratio, which measures our ability to lend mortgages, return savers' money when they need it and pay our bills, was 13.8%, also above the minimum requirement. Our leverage ratio, which demonstrates our ability to cope with unexpected events, was 5.8%.

We continued to keep a close eye on costs, reducing management expenses – the money which we use to run your Society – to £290m from £311m in 2018, and resulting in a cost to core income ratio of 60% in 2019. All of our profit is retained for financial strength or reinvested in your Society to provide better products, rates and services for our members.

“Controlling our costs will remain a focus, to ensure we're able to deliver value for money for you.”

We don't just consider the financial figures, we look at a number of key performance indicators to give an overall and wider measure of how we're doing. Some of these are summarised on the following pages and should provide you with reassurance that your Society is in safe hands.

Finally I'd like to thank all of our colleagues and business partners for the role they played in delivering such a strong performance in 2019.
